CONTINENTAL AIRLINES TO LAUNCH
GUAM-OKINAWA SERVICE IN SEPTEMBER 2011

- OKINAWA BECOMES THE TENTH JAPANESE CITY WITH NON-STOP SERVICE TO GUAM -

GUAM, April 27, 2011 – United Continental Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: UAL) announced today the introduction of Continental Airlines non-stop flights between Guam and Okinawa, Japan, with the goal of attracting more tourists to Guam and provide customers in Okinawa with enhanced access to Hawaii, the U.S. Mainland and other destinations throughout the Continental Pacific network. (This service is subject to government approval). This year-round, four-times-weekly service will be launched on September 28, 2011, with Okinawa becoming the 10th Japanese city with non-stop service to Guam on Continental. The new flight is available for sale beginning today.

The four-times-weekly nonstop service between Guam and Okinawa will be operated by Boeing 737 Next Generation aircraft, with the following schedule:

Table with 6 columns: Route, Days, Flight, Departing, Arriving, Aircraft. It details flight schedules for Guam-Okinawa and Okinawa-Guam routes, including flight numbers (CO 905, CO 904), departure/arrival times, and aircraft type (B737NG).
